

DANTE SUMMER FESTIVAL 2019

Join the Friends of the Dante Festival

If you enjoy our concerts and would like to help the Dante Festival to thrive in future years, we invite you to join our Friends scheme.

Because most of our concerts are in small venues and we wish to keep ticket prices low, our box office revenue only covers half the cost of the festival. For the other half, we depend on a small number of generous sponsors and our network of Friends.

Membership of the Friends costs £30 per individual or £40 per family. If you feel able to give more, or wish to sponsor one of the concerts, we would of course be delighted. We would also like to hear from you if you have any other ideas to help with fundraising.

As a Friend of the Dante Festival you will get priority booking and reserved front-of-house seating at concerts. You are also warmly invited to join us for a glass of champagne after the concert on 9th July in Callington.
